Breakthrough is a non-profit organization founded by parents of children with autism that is changing how services are provided to adults with autism in Tennessee. The mission of Breakthrough is to provide services that enable adults with autism to lead purposeful lives. We provide a range of tailored services necessary for adults with autism and their families and serve as a resource to the broader community. Breakthrough offers a variety of high quality and efficient housing, training programs and work and leisure opportunities for adults with autism.

Breakthrough offers residential services; in-home supports; a Saturday therapeutic recreation program; day activities focusing on lifelong education, job skill discovery and community integration; supported employment emphasizing job skill development, placement and support; and a social group for adults with Asperger's Syndrome. Breakthrough nurtures individual growth, independence and freedom, thereby enabling the people we support to reach their potential for a lifetime of productiveness and fulfillment. Breakthrough's vision is the model of excellence for adults with autism and daily strives to improve the lives of adults with autism.

Kresge's Krew Foundation

We help children and adults with Autism throughout our community and surrounding area by providing funds to local foundations, charities and different therapists who specialize in aiding those with Autism. Together, we can make a difference.
